Colleagues in the Media

Together with Government and Stakeholders, BUSA has recently been addressing the challenge of a new growth path for SA.

Prior to the release of the Government document last week, BUSA had prepared a discussion document - based on widespread research - to assist its members in unpacking key issues around the search for improving SA's economic performance.

The BUSA internal debate has also sought to galvanise the national psyche towards growth and jobs and to focus the role of the private sector.

The BUSA discussion document was eventually based on -

- Confirming the broad socio-economic challenges faced by SA.
- The need for a higher growth path as a necessary condition for successful development
- Lessons from the experiences of 5 comparable economies
- 4 Alternative scenarios
- 11 tough choices.

This document will serve as background to a presentation on BUSA's preliminary reaction to Government's discussion document released last week on a New Growth Path for SA in a media briefing at 14H30 Thursday 2 December 2010 at the BUSA offices.
