

Media STATEMENT: BUSA condolences on the passing of Sam Buthelezi

Release: Immediate

Business Unity South Africa learnt this week of the tragic and untimely passing of Sam Buthelezi, former President of the Foundation for African Business and Consumer Services (FABCOS).

Bra Sam, as he was known to his friends, was a founding member of FABCOS and a leader in promoting the entry of small black business into the mainstream economy. His passing is a great loss to Business in South Africa. He played a vital role leading to the formation of BUSA.

Bra Sam will be remembered as a pioneer of small black business in South Africa. Through FABCOS, his legacy of promoting black economic empowerment will continue.

He will be greatly missed by his friends at BUSA and those in the wider business fraternity.

BUSA expresses its deepest sympathy and condolences to the Buthelezi family and everyone at FABCOS at this difficult time.

27 January 2010

Media Enquiries:

Raymond Parsons - Deputy CEO

083 225 6642