BUSA WELCOMES SUSPENDED STRIKE ACTION

JOHANNESBURG - BUSA welcomes the compromise reached by the public sector unions and government to suspend the 15-day public sector strike.

Jerry Vilakazi CEO of BUSA: "As business we are relieved that an interim resolution has been reached. Now, we urge all public sector workers to focus on improving productivity and efficiency within the public sector service, in particular in the schools and hospitals, as well as across all levels of society. The objective going forward is to achieve a higher, inclusive and labour-absorbing economic growth path."
